

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A sunshade includes a first net body, a second net body, and a curtain body. The first net body includes a first connecting portion, a first shading portion, and a first heat-dissipating portion. The first shading portion includes weft yarns and warp yarns interlaced with the weft yarns. The first heat-dissipating portion includes weft yarns. The second net body includes a second connecting portion, a second shading portion, and a second heat-dissipating portion. The second shading portion includes weft yarns and warp yarns interlaced with the weft yarns of the second shading portion. The second heat-dissipating portion includes weft yarns. The curtain body includes a third connecting portion and a third heat-dissipating portion connected to the third connecting portion. The third heat-dissipating portion includes weft yarns. The first, second and third connecting portions are connected together.